

Sri Sai Ram Engineering College ED programme held

Sri Sai Ram Engineering College ED Cell organized two-day (July 11 and July 12, 2016) AICTE sponsored Entrepreneurship Development

Programme 'Igniting Young Minds Towards Entrepreneurship' under the flagship of Sri Sai Ram Institute of Management Studies. The programme commenced with invocation, and Dr. K. Maran welcomed the gathering and he also introduced the Chief Guest, subsequently felicitations were offered to the Chief guest K. Rajaram, IAS, by Dr. K. Maran and Dr. Rajendra Prasad. Later on, they also released Sanukhya and M-Infiniti bi-annual journals. Dr. Sheela and Ranganathan were also present on the dais. Rajaram, Principal Secretary/Director, Entrepreneurship Institute, Chennai, inaugurated the Entrepreneurship Development Programme.

AICTE ED Cell organised by SIMS

SIMS organised an Entrepreneurship Development Programme on Igniting Young Minds towards Entrepreneurship 2016 for students of all branches in Engineering, Management Studies and Computer Applications on July 11 and 12, 2016 at the college premises. The aim of programme is to create awareness towards entrepreneurship and to inculcate the entrepreneurship trait for engineering and management students.