

College conducts panel discussion on union budget

SNAPSHOT: The speakers gave an overview of the budget and explained its pros and cons in detail.

Sri Sairam Institute of Management Studies conducted a panel discussion on 'Critical Union Budget Analysis -2014' recently.

It was presented by three eminent speakers, Dr. R. Kannan, economist, former principal advisor, RBI and former member, IRDA; V. Balasubramanian, vice-president of corporate communications, India Cements Limited, and P. Srinivasan, A.C.A. chartered accountant and tax consultant. Dr. K. Maran welcomed the chief guest and offered his felicitations.

Balasubramanian highlighted the policy paralysis and the reason for financial crisis in 2008 and explained the job opportunities available to students in the upcoming years. He also mentioned the sectors in which the investors have huge benefits because of the budget.

Srinivasan said that this budget is just an extension of the previous budget and that only alterations have been made. He explained that financial sector, population sweat, leadership style are the major aspects of our Indian budget.

Kannan also discussed the current GDP rate, inflation rate and other salient features of the budget and also explained about the current fiscal target and the principal message from the budget.
